

#7 May 2022

Spring has sprung and many of us are gearing up for the Queen's Platinum Jubilee celebrations that are planned this week. After so many cancelled plans over the last two years this feels like a great opportunity to come together in celebration.

Is your library's equipment support contract about to expire? Scroll down to find out how Nexbib's flexible support solutions can give you peace-of-mind and ensure your equipment is supported.

Share your Jubilee displays!

Help us find the best library Jubilee display!

We know that the library community are fantastic at finding creative ways of engaging with their local communities, and the Jubilee is a great opportunity for libraries to bring this historic event to life for both children and all library users.

Next month we will share a montage of your library Jubilee displays. We will also pick a winner for the best, most creative display. To be included in our montage and to be in with a chance of being selected as our overall winner, send us your photos or tag me in your LinkedIn posts. Good luck!

Protecting your investment...

Imagine... it's a busy day in your library, your children's story event has just come to a close and everyone is choosing books to borrow... and suddenly your kiosks go offline or stop working. What impression does having an "Out of Order" sign on your kiosk give to the reputation of the council? Consider the impact that this will have on your library and your library users.

You remember that your equipment's service agreement has expired. What do you do?...

Just because your library equipment has reached the end of its agreed service contract doesn't mean that it can't be supported further. Far from it in fact. Your existing equipment can be supported beyond its supplier-provided service contract.

With Nexbib you'll have one number, one contact to speak to and peace of mind. We will provide you with reliable support to call upon helping you to manage your budgets and deliver great service for your library users.

We've put together an overview of how our service plans can be tailored to meet YOUR needs...

"We've always had great and timely service from Nexbib. Our external 24-hour book return unit had been out of action for several months. Nexbib quickly identified the problem and went the extra mile to ensure compatibility by sourcing the identical original screen from the USA and were able to get the unit back up and running soon after it arrived."

Out an about...

CILIP's Library and Information Supplier Showcase Spring 2022

I attended the latest Library and Information Supplier Showcase earlier this month. A great event to network and see several library customers, new and current. I was pleased to support Innovative and Their Vega Suite for Library Marketing. With conversations still focused around post-pandemic recovery it was interesting to pick up good insights from library leaders on this topic.

Were you there? I'd love to hear what your key take-outs were?

The Queens' Platinum Jubilee lands in Pontefract Library, Wakefield! The sun is out as well as the bunting this week as the library service begins the celebrations. Thank you to Sue Eustace for permission to post these images. I have never seen a Jubilee bicycle until today!

Libraries are just great.
